

PURIFYING TREATMENT

Purifying Formula

TARAMAR Purifying Treatment is a potent algae cleansing oil that provides antioxidation and a skin firming effect. Leaves your skin sparkling clean, smooth and firm. A delicate oil blend for all skin types, especially suitable for sensitive skin.

Dispense drops into palm of hand, apply to face and eye area and massage gently. Rinse with lukewarm water.

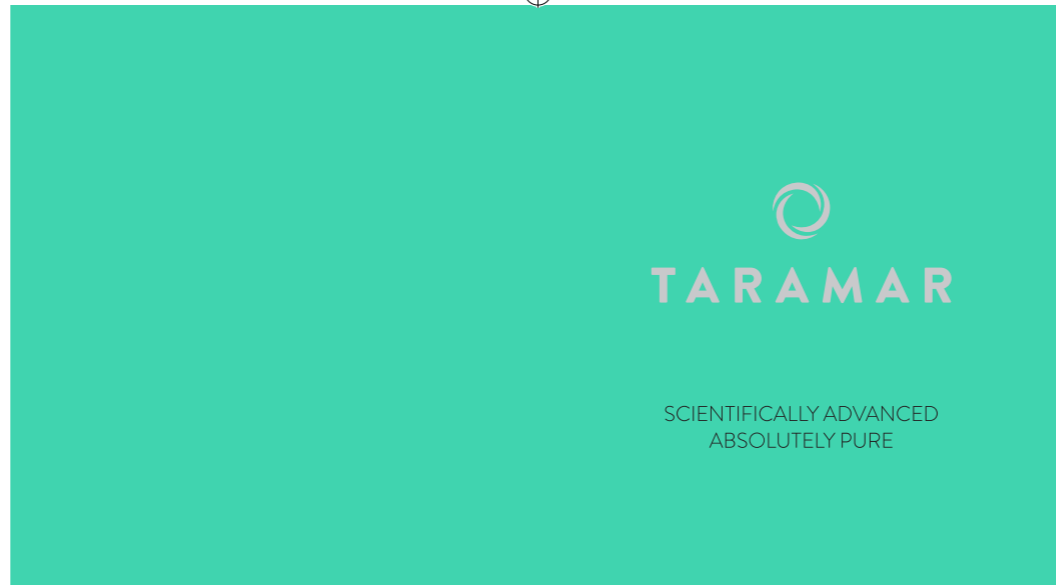

NIGHT TREATMENT

Reforming Formula

TARAMAR Night Treatment is a potent bioactive formulation made from Icelandic seaweed, peptides and luxurious skin healing oils. The treatment stimulates and restores skin cells while you sleep, reduces wrinkles and leaves your skin silky and smooth.

For best results, apply daily to face after treatment with TARAMAR Serum.

WORKING WITH NATURE

TARAMAR products are the result of a meticulous process and innovative research. Using Icelandic seaweed and organically grown medicinal herbs, we have extracted potent ingredients and confirmed their bioactivity to create pure and safe skin care products that work with nature – not against her.

APPLY WITHOUT DELAY

TARAMAR products are freshly made from potent bioactives that are sensitive to oxidation. To ensure full benefits, do not store over an extended period of time; use without delay after opening.

HEALING TREATMENT

Recovery formula

TARAMAR Healing Treatment is a potent ultra pure formula made with wild Icelandic herbs and premium organic oils to heal disturbed, infected and burned skin.

Apply to disturbed skin as needed or use for daily protection. If treating burned skin, apply thick layer of the cream repeatedly during the first 2 hours.

ARCTIC FLOWER TREATMENT

Replenishing formula

TARAMAR Arctic Flower Treatment is an ultra pure formula made with the Arctic Complex® extract, flowers of wild and organically grown Icelandic herbs and peptides that reduce lipstick lines and promote firm, elastic and hydrated facial skin.

For best results apply daily (even twice per day) on the upper lip area and other facial areas as needed.

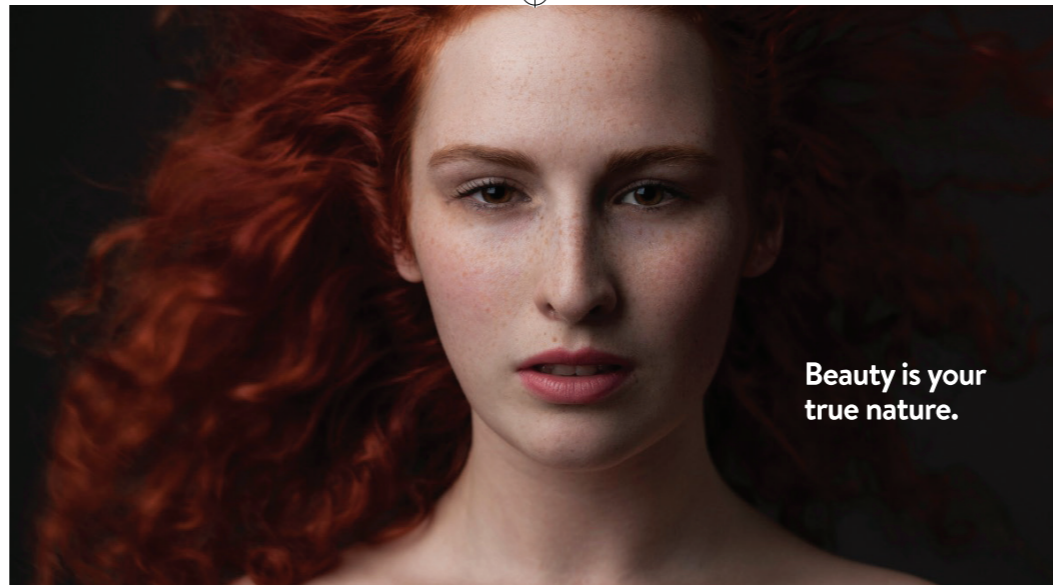

DAY TREATMENT

Revitalizing formula

TARAMAR Day Treatment combines sustainably harvested Icelandic seaweed with organically grown medicinal herbs in an exceptionally pure skin care product that stimulates healthy cellular metabolism, protects the skin from oxidation, counteracts inflammation and restores skin firmness.

Apply daily to face and neck after cleansing with TARAMAR Purifying Treatment. Perfect under make-up.

Beauty is your true nature.

THE SERUM

Restoring formula

Ultra pure bioactive serum with Icelandic seaweed, skin supporting peptide, viola tricolor extract and hyaluronic acid for effective hydration, firmer and more even skin.

Apply 1 drop to face after cleansing with TARAMAR Purifying Treatment, paying special attention to the areas around the eyes and mouth.

THE EYE TREATMENT

Regenerating formula

Ultra pure formula made with the ArcticComplex® extract, wild mountain herbs and premium organic oils to improve sagging and dark colored skin around the eyes.

Apply once per day, 1-2 drops above and below the eyes. Especially good for areas of sagging skin: The upper part of the eye lids and the neck area.
